Summary: This collection contains photographs and written documentation of extant early wall paintings and stencils in New England (especially Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont) homes and institutions as identified by Mr. and Mrs. Fabian between approximately 1977 – 1982. There is also information from various research trips they took to museums and other public collections, as well as a few heavily annotated printed volumes about this subject.

The stencils made or copied by Mrs Fabian, along with pieces of wall paper and some reverse paintings on glass are in the New Hampshire Historical Society's Museum collection, accession # 1987.5

Scope and Content Note:

Mr. and Mrs. Fabian organized their meticulous notes and photographs in folders arranged by state, then town, then the name of the current owner of the building in which the wall decorations were found. Since the owners have in most cases changed since then, the files are now arranged by state, town, then the commonly-known name of the building if it has one ("Brown's Tavern," "Smith Homestead," etc.) In these cases, the owner when the Fabians visited is given in parentheses on the folder heading. If there is no common name for the building, it is listed by the name of the owner when the Fabians visited. The couple seem to have concentrated upon northern New England in their travel.

Mr. and Mrs. Fabian took Polaroid photographs of the wall decorations they found. Sometimes these are supplemented by slides, and occasionally by purchased images or photographs given them by the owner of the building. Photographs, slides and written information are together in the folders.

They kept secondary source material about the buildings in the folders with their notes and photographs about them. This includes magazine or newspaper articles, correspondence with town clerks or other knowledgeable people in the town. They also kept all correspondence with the owners of the buildings they documented. This material has all been retained.

Boxes 1 – 20 contain the state listings, which comprise the Fabians' original research.

Boxes 21 – 24 contain records of their research in museums and public collections.

Boxes 25 – 26 contain their research notes, arranged by subject.

Box 27 contains 4 heavily annotated bound volumes about wall decorations and 3 folders of slide shows

The appendix contains a cross-reference by artist indicating which towns contain works attributed to named painters to whom more than one attribution has been made in the Fabians' work.
