GILMORE/CARR/TAPPAN PAPERS
PAPERS, 1847-1907
ca. 257 Items, 1 Box

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE:

Joseph A. Gilmore, NH Politician and superintendent of the Concord Railroad. See Register for Acc # 1926-6 for more information.

Harrison Darling Robertson, merchant, Warner, NH.

Daniel Carr, Bradford NH merchant, active in NH politics and the railroad business.

Mason W. Tappan, lawyer, NH member of Congress and Colonel in the Civil War, see attach biographical materials.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE:

This correspondence relates to the business of bringing in the Concord & Claremont railroad. There are questions of location and land purchase for right of way, depots, and bridges. Contracts for wood, investment subscriptions and other financial matters are covered. Correspondents include Gen. Joseph Low and Onslow Stearns.

Mason Weare Tappan writes to his brother-in-law Daniel Carr of the "whine of political life" and the situation in Washington, DC. There are tow letters from the Civil War: Moses Seavey in the 16th NH in 1862 and William D. Angell in the 6th NH Vols. Apr. 12, 1865.
