BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE:

Captain Lyman Jackman was born in Woodstock, NH, August 15, 1837, son of Major Royal Jackman and Lucretia Ladd Jackman. He was a farmer and lumberman until he enlisted with the 6th NH Volunteers at Haverhill, NH in September, 1861. Jackman was appointed First Sergeant, then Second Lieutenant and was with the Burnside's expedition in North Carolina and Pope's campaign in Virginia. He served in various ranks until August 1864 when he was appointed Captain of Company C. In September he was captured and taken to Libby Prison in Richmond. He was mustered out in July of 1865.

Captain Jackman returned to Concord, NH and carried on an insurance business. In 1885 he was elected to a seat in the Legislature. In December 1866 he married Sarah T. Tilton, daughter of Rev. J.D. Tilton. They had two children, Charles L and Freeman T.
