Bradbury Jewell Papers

Although there are a few miscellaneous documents, the bulk of the material fall into two types of records. First the oath of allegiance, 1776 & militia materials, 1777-1784, from Tamworth and second promissory notes to and from Jewel to others in Sandwich and Tamworth, 1775-1784. Many of the notes have the signature torn off, but judging from the bits of signature remaining, <sup>they are</sup> ~~it is~~ most likely those of Bradbury Jewell.
