

LIVERMORE FAMILY PAPERS

1787-1883

18 boxes, 9 linear feet

Biographical Notes:

Rev. Jonathan Livermore (1729-1809): son of Deacon Jonathan Livermore, Northboro, MA and Pastor of the Congregational Church in Wilton from 1763 – 1777. He married Elizabeth Kidder of Billerica, MA and became the father of Jonathan Jr. (1770-1845), Elizabeth (1772-1842), Mary (1774-1797), Nathan (1776-1852), Solomon Kidder (1779-1859), Anna (1781-1825), Sarah (1789-1874), and Lydia (1792- ?) as well as Samuel (1784-1786) and Samuel (1786-1788).

Jonathan Livermore, Jr. (1770 - 1845): farmer residing on the homestead. He married Abigail Abbot, daughter of Major Abiel Abbot, and was the father of Jonathan (1809-1887) and Abiel Abbot Livermore (1811-1892).

Elizabeth Livermore (1772-1842): oldest daughter of Rev. Jonathan Livermore and unmarried sister of Jonathan, Jr.

Solomon Kidder Livermore (1779 - 1859): lawyer. A graduate of Harvard College, 1802, he resided in Milford. He married Abigail A. Jarvis of Cambridge MA.

Anna Livermore Kimball (1781-1824): daughter of Solomon Kidder Livermore, she married John Kimball and died suddenly on June 5, 1824. Her children included Samuel Livermore Kimball (1817-), Abigail Kimball (1819-1886), Jonathan Bowers Kimball (1821), and Mary Kimball (1823-1825).

Sarah White Livermore (1789 - 1874): teacher and writer of fugitive poetry and prose. The daughter of Rev. Jonathan Livermore, she did not marry.

Jonathan (1809-1887): farmed and ran a milling business. Married to Dorcas (Holt) Blodgett, he was the father of Abigail Abbot (1835-?) who married Eliphalet P. Dascomb and resided in Wilton, and Mary Elizabeth (1844 - ?) who married Martin Andrew Rockwood and resided in Brookline. He also fathered Henry Harrison Livermore (1848-?), from whom are some letters in this collection.

Rev. Abiel Abbot Livermore (1811 - 1892): Unitarian minister. He served at the Congregational Church in Keene from 1836-1850, the Unitarian Church in Cincinnati, OH from 1850-1856, and at Hope Church in Yonkers, NY from 1856-1863, and he edited the Christian Inquirer from 1857-1863. He married Elizabeth D. Abbot of Windham, who died in 1879 and then married Mrs. Mary A. (Keating) Moore, in 1883. Her children included Rev. Walter C. Moore of Pepperell, MA and Mabel A. Moore.

Abigail Kimball (1819 - 1886): daughter of Anna Livermore Kimball. Upon her mother's death, she was raised by aunts and uncles and became a schoolteacher. She did not marry and lived with Sarah White Livermore.

Corporal Abiel Abbot Livermore (1838 - 1863): second child of Jonathan and nephew of Abiel Abbot Livermore. He enlisted October 25, 1861 in Company B, 8th Regiment of NH Volunteers, and died July 3, 1863 at Port Hudson, LA

This collection has been comprised of four different series of material: the Abiel A. Livermore Correspondence, the Sarah W. Livermore batch, the Jonathan Livermore letters, and the Cynthia Godfrey material. The Abiel A. Livermore series contain sixty-three letters dated 1797-1820 mostly to or from Solomon K. Livermore, lawyer from Milford, or his brothers, sisters, or father. Solomon was uncle of Abiel A. Livermore. Approximately another 1,850 letters are dated 1827-1849 (38 of which are undated) were written to Abiel A. Livermore or his wife.

This collection also contains about 75 undated notes, slips, and messages; and about 230 bills, records and calling cards. Nine items related to Keene Schools: reports, visits, by-laws and so forth. Approximately 33 manuscripts refer to the Keene Church Sunday School and include Journal reports, lectures, a letter and additional articles for the Teacher's Journal. There are also articles written for the Social Gazette.

Additionally, the collection contains a draft of an essay on Mexican War and a hand-written booklet on war sewn together along with other printed material. Letters and reports, as well as a handwritten booklet sewn together, cover a "Study of Insane in New Hampshire, 1838-1839." Finally, this collection includes miscellaneous printed material (18 items), 5 booklets, 12 Fast Day Proclamations (1837-1848), and 11 Thanksgiving Proclamations (1836-1849).

The Sarah W. Livermore batch was found more recently than the Abiel A. Livermore series. It contains about 251 miscellaneous letters dating from before 1800 to 1869; 175 letters from Abiel A. Livermore to his Aunt Sarah, dated up to 1869; 64 letters to Sarah W. Livermore regarding her school, 1843-1846; 16 practice sheets, lesson books and small slips/notes; and 15 roll call lists, records and advertisements. This series also contains 58 handwritten and 7 printed poems; 40 essays and lectures; an arithmetic lesson book (handwritten) Abby Kimball (b. 1819) catechism; 7 children's books; a diary dated 1829; merit cards and notes for school work; and Abiel A. Livermore's school commendation cards (1816-1820) An additional 120 other items, including bills, a diary page, fliers and so forth, complete this series.

Items from the Jonathan Livermore, brother to Abiel A. Livermore, series include 317 letters dated 1777-1848, and approximately 700 receipts, deeds, legal papers, promissory notes, and attachments. This series also contains approximately 1,000 letters (dating from 1849 through 1900), approximately 200 of which were sent between Civil War Corporal Abiel A. Livermore and his family members and other soldiers. The remaining letters in this collection were written by Abiel A. Livermore and his brother, Jonathan, to and from other family members, and from Henry H. Livermore, whose letters dated after 1865.

Finally, a small collection of letters dated from 1828-1832 are included in the Cynthia Godfrey group. Included with this group is a transcription of the diary kept by Abiel A. Livermore, 1861-1863, which address his Civil War experience.
