MOORE (Moor), NATHAN (1786-1864)
FAMILY PAPERS, 1757-1853
ca. 200 items, 1 Box

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE:

William Moore Sr. (1720-1804) bought land in Canterbury, NH in 1748. His youngest son, named William Jr., was born in 1757 and apparently lived on the Canterbury homestead until his death in 1814. William Jr.'s oldest son Nathan Moore was born in 1786.

Nathan Moore was a farmer in Canterbury, NH and had business in various other parts of Grafton County. Nathan Moore served in the War of 1812 in the NH Militia. He married Sally Crosby and they had twelve children. He died in Alexandria, NH in 1864.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE:

The papers for William Moore Sr. include deeds and promissory notes. William Moore Jr. is represented by promissory notes and receipts. Some of the receipts for William Moore Jr. and Sr. may be intermixed.

Nathan Moore's legal papers include documents such as Juvenile Fraternity papers, land deeds, and indenture papers for Dimond Ingalls. There are militia commissions and orders for Moore, David McGillis and John Clough. The bulk of Nathan Moore's papers are promissory notes and receipts including some from the Canterbury Toll Bridge.

The non-Moore family papers are listed in detail in the following inventory. The Miscellaneous items are an account book of ferrying across the Merrimac River in 1818 and a hand written copy entitle "the Oxford Tragedy".
