BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE:

Moses P. Moulton (d. 1881) lived in Albany and married Louisa Rice in about 1830. They moved to a farm in Sandwich, NH in October of 1867. They had six children.

Herbert Edwin Moulton (1850-1935) In 1880 Herbert inherited the family farm in Sandwich from his father. In 1884 he married Julia A. Tilton, daughter of David Tilton. He was active in cattle trading. During the summers from 1882 until 1920 they took in summer boarders. The Moultons were active in the Library Association and the temperance movement. He was president of the Sandwich local Telephone Company for a number of years. For several years he served as Deputy Sheriff and was on the Board of Selectmen from 1905-1909.
